HillStaffer Receives 2014 Best of Washington Award

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Innovative Washington government affairs firm HillStaffer, LLC, has been selected for the 2014 Best of Washington Award in the Professional Services category by the Washington Award Program. “It’s an honor to be named one of the most well respected companies in Washington, DC, said Thomas R. Rosenfield, HillStaffer’s president.

“This recognition reinforces the industry leadership position we have achieved through our unique, highly effective government relations platform, and further distinguishes our record of delivering superior solutions to clients with access to an unmatched level of subject-matter expertise. I’d like to thank the entire HillStaffer team for their dedication and professionalism, and look forward to building on our success for many years to come.”

Each year, the Washington Award Program identifies companies that it believes have achieved exceptional marketing success in their local community and business category. These are local companies that enhance the positive image of small business through service to their customers and community. These exceptional companies help make the Washington area a great place to live, work and play.

Various sources of information were gathered and analyzed to choose the winners in each category. The 2014 Washington Award Program focuses on quality, not quantity. Winners are determined based on the information gathered both internally by the Washington Award Program and data provided by third parties.
